Dear Parents and Guardians

Re: Poetry Live GCSE Conference Friday 24 February 2017

I am writing to inform you of the mandatory GCSE English Literature examination support trip to Poetry Live, in Central London, on Friday 24th February.

This is an absolutely crucial fixture in the academic calendar, where students experience their set examination poems being read and discussed by many of the poets on the syllabus, and additionally receive advice on examination technique from the AQA examination board's Chief Examiner in English Literature, we therefore strongly recommend that all students attend.

The cost of this event is £48 payable either via cheque to The Webber Independent School Activity Account or by Bacs to account 30-15-53 02628827.

Please remit payment by Monday 23 January 2017.

The cost includes the actual event and the return coach journey, and we have held the amount charged to the same cost as in recent years.

On the day itself, the coach will depart at 8.00am in order to arrive in good time. Students will therefore need to arrange to be at school before 8.00am on the day and later arrangements put into place for collecting students at the approximate return time 4.45pm

I shall write with further clarification of requirements for the day, regarding study materials and refreshments, nearer to the occasion.

We look forward to an inspirational and informative day with your child.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Martin Roper – Head Of English
